

Date

Dear

I am writing to you today as a part of Durham Women Vote—a Get Out The Vote initiative to communicate with women about how important their vote is this November.

This is an exciting year. We can vote, for the first time in history, for a woman to be our President. Hillary Clinton is prepared to be our President. Thinking of Donald Trump as president just scares me—he has little experience and seems to not care about the people of the United States.

We also can support Deborah Ross who is running for US Senate to replace Richard Burr. Deborah Ross will protect our Social Security and Medicare as well as defend women's ability to make their own decisions about their bodies. Burr will do nothing to get guns out of the hands of the wrong people; Deborah Ross will!

We also have an opportunity in this election to elect Roy Cooper as our governor. Pat McCrory has hurt many in our state. I am most upset that he did not expand Medicaid to add 500,000 North Carolinians to the rolls. Roy Cooper has promised to change this and much more.

I am writing you today to encourage you to VOTE in November. VOTE for DEMOCRATS—up and down the ticket. We need people—women and men—in government who share our beliefs! Many strong Democrats are running for State Offices; many are strong women. Enclosed is a Blue Card that gives you a list of progressive candidates that deserve your support as you vote.

Please put the early voting schedule and the list of candidates on your refrigerator for safe keeping. Take the Blue Card when you go to vote. If getting to the polls is difficult for you, you may request a mail-in ballot (Absentee ballot). I am happy to help you get a mail-in ballot if you want one. I hope you will Early Vote—the lines will be long on Election Day. If you decide to vote on Election Day (November 8) you will vote at your precinct _____.

Share this information with your friends and family. We need to get everyone to the polls to VOTE.

If you have questions, please call me at ___-___-_____ See you at the polls!